UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

- against -

ZAVEN YERKARYAN,

Defendant.

20 Cr. 652 (VM)

ORDER

VICTOR MARRERO, United States District Judge.

In a letter emailed to the Court on April 16, 2024, Defendant moves through attorney Jilbert Tahmazian for an adjournment of the sentencing proceeding scheduled for April 19, 2024. Defendant advises that for medical reasons, "it is unwise for him to travel to New York absent medical clearance." Defendant further advises that the Government does not stipulate to the adjournment absent a letter from Defendant's physician. Defendant represents that he has been attempting in good faith to obtain a doctor's appointment but has been thus far unable to do so.

The adjournment request is hereby GRANTED. The sentencing proceeding currently scheduled for April 19, 2024 is hereby ADJOURNED to May 3, 2024 at 1:00 PM.

The Court notes that Mr. Tahmazian has not formally appeared in this matter on behalf of Defendant. Mr. Tahmazian has not entered an appearance on the docket, despite the local rule requiring criminal defense attorneys to do so. See Local Criminal Rule 1.2. Further, it appears that Mr. Tahmazian may not be admitted to the Bar of this District.

Defendant is also represented by attorney Jeffrey Chartier, who has entered an appearance on the docket. (See Dkt. No. 57.) Mr. Chartier and the Government have been copied on communications between the Court and Mr. Tahmazian.

Mr. Tahmazian is hereby ORDERED to represent in writing as soon as possible that he will commit to seek admission to the Bar of the Southern District of New York or otherwise obtain authorization to practice before the Court in this matter within three (3) days. Further, Mr. Chartier is ORDERED to, if necessary, ensure that Mr. Tahmazian receives actual notice of this Order as soon as possible.

SO ORDERED.
